

Group Work 1

Issues, constraints and objectives of river-basin management in each participating country

For this initial exercise, the participants were asked to work in six groups, according to their countries of residence.

Each country group was asked to prepare a report as follows :

Identify the principal issues, objectives and constraints affecting river-basin management in your country.