

Items	Contents	Remarks
Legal background of water right system	Law no 7 the year 2004, for water resources	The law stipulates that a specific government regulation for water right shall be established, however, the draft of the regulation is being made.
Ownership of water	Water resources is governed by the State, and managed by the government
Character of Water Right	Right to use and exploit any surface and ground water.
Contents of Right	There are 4 clauses on water right in the law, describing that water right comprises of right to use water and right to exploit water.
Necessity or not of permission	No permission is required if it is for daily use and for agriculture need within existing irrigation system. Permission is required if in using or exploiting water change of natural condition of the water resources occurs.
Permitter	Government (central, provincial, and district) depending on the river basin location.
Limitation of water right holder		And further items are to be decided in the government regulation.