

Questionnaire I (Country Report I)

Please describe your expectation for this thematic workshop on water resources and water right.

(Country Name: Thailand)

The expectation for thematic workshop on water resources and water right:

- The experience exchange between the experts of many countries.
- The application from different experience to design the water resources planning, water allocation strategy and water right in each country.
- The water mission and water allocation planning for international rivers. (Mae Kong river)
- Exchange experience about the problem and solution of water allocation and water right with other country
- Case study in country where can solve the problem about conflicts among water users.
- Standard master plan for water allocation that can be a pattern for many countries to apply for their countries.
- The cooperation among countries to study and research about the topic of water allocation and water right after this workshop is done. It can help country where there are problems about this topic.